

Becoming an Approved ARHA Judge

The following information is on becoming an ARHA approved judge, as well as the forms you will need for application and references. If you have any questions about requirements on these forms, please call ARHA.

All applicants must have had previous equine judging experience. By applying for an American Ranch Horse Association Judges card, the applicant is indicating they are capable of judging every class in the ARHA rulebook. All judge applicants must attend the ARHA Judges seminar to become an approved ARHA judge. The seminars are designed to establish standards for judging the performance of the ARHA ranch horses and classes.

HOW TO APPLY

- Applicant's must have been an ARHA member-in-good-standing for one full year prior to applying to become a judge.
- Applicant's must be 21 years of age as of January 1 of the application year in order to apply.
- There is a $75.00 application fee. This is non-refundable.
- New Judge applicants are required to submit a completed application and provide a minimum of six (6) references. Reference must include one (1) judge (western/ranch type) that have witnessed you judge, two (2) references must be from show management personnel who have hired you to judge, and three (3) character references.
- Urge your references to send in their reference letter as quickly as possible. All references must be received before your application can be submitted to the judges committee.
- Provide a recent photo, suitable for publication, of yourself in the attire you would wear to judge a horse show. (Photo will remain property of ARHA).
- Incomplete applications cannot be presented to the Judge's Committee for consideration and will be declared void, and require that the application process including repayment of application fee to start over.
- Periodically, a judge may receive letter requiring updated information and references.
- To be considered as a 2010 approved judge, all applications must be received by January 18, 2010.

JUDGES COMMITTEE CONSIDERATION

- Once the application has been received by ARHA, a judges file will be created and provided to the ARHA Judges Committee and Board of Directors at the Judge's Seminar for review.
- Applicants are required to attend the two-day seminar to be held February 18th & 19th, 2010 at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Lexington, Kentucky in order to become an approved ARHA judge. Seminar may include, but are not limited to: video testing, rulebook testing, personal interview and culture fit with ARHA evaluations. Applicant's should keep in mind that they are under continual review throughout the entire process.
- Additional Scribe class will be held on Wednesday, February 17th from 1:00pm —5:00 pm and is free to all Judge Applicants that attend the Seminar.
- Scores and application will be reviewed by Judges Committee and BOD at the Judges Seminar. At that time, the committee determines if an applicant is approved for judging on a one-year, three year, apprentice status, or denied approval based on the knowledge, testing and interview of judge.
- ARHA will send a letter within two weeks of the seminar to notify judges applicants of the decision.
- If you are approved for judging status, your name will be provided to those seeking names and addresses of ARHA approved judges.
- All Approved judges must maintain their membership in ARHA.
- If your application is denied, you may resubmit an application one year from the date of application. A second filing fee must be paid at that time.
