

ARHyA Club Profile

Purpose: Highlights outstanding Youth Ranch Horse Clubs that are a part of a larger ARHA Regional Charter. We want to know what makes your youth club excel— what makes your club different, what are some unique fundraising/ service projects the club has developed and what can other Youth learn from your club and its members.

Publication: Riding the Range (quarterly)

Specifics: The approximately 500-word column appears in the quarterly Riding the Range magazine. It typically includes quotes from the Youth Advisor, as well as Youth members who are active in the club. Four to six high-resolution images of your Youth club and its members “in action” are required.

How to Submit: Send the following information to the editorial staff for consideration. Please include” ARHyA Club Profile” in your subject line:

- Tell me about your club’s youth group. How many members do you have?
- What types of activities does the Youth club participate in? What’s the most unique activity you have done (and tell me about it)?
- Does the youth group participate in any fundraiser or community service projects? If yes, please explain what types of fundraisers or service projects you’ve completed, and what has been your club’s most successful fundraiser?
- How does the club encourage youth to be involved with ARHA and Ranch horses in your area?
- Tell me something interesting about your club and its members.
- How does your club and its members encourage others to join or get involve with Ranch horse?
