Friday, July 20th: 7:00am—2:00pm

To pick up your exhibitor packet which includes exhibitor's entry number you must present or have included with your show entries the following:

1. 2018 Membership Cards for all owners and exhibitors.
2. Original or photocopy of ARHA Certificate Of Eligibility.
3. Negative Coggins (Equine Infectious Anemia).
4. 30 day Health Certificate issued by a licensed veterinarian from the state of origin for out of state horses. **

REMINDER!!! EVERYONE ENTERING AN AMATEUR/NOVICE AMATEUR, YOUTH /NOVICE YOUTH MUST HAVE A CURRENT ARHA CARD TO SHOW.
ALL OWNERS & EXHIBITORS ARE REQUIRED TO BE CURRENT MEMBERS.

Entry Numbers: To ensure that your placings are accurate, it is essential that the correct entry number is used in all classes. The number will be assigned to the horse. Failure by exhibitor to display the correct number in a visible manner while being judged will result in disqualification from class. Riding classes require that the number be place on both sides of saddle pad.

Make sure the veterinarian uses horse's registered name on health and coggings certificates rather than "barn name". If current coggins, health papers, membership cards and Certificate Of Eligibility are not available, the horse will not be allowed to compete and entry fees will be forfeited. All horses are subject to inspection by the Show/State Veterinarian at any time or if suspected of harboring a communicable disease.*
