

For Immediate Release

American Ranch Horse Association partners with Montana Silversmiths in 2016!

Montana Silversmith will be the "Official Silversmiths" of the American Ranch Horse Association and will handcraft world class award buckles for all ARHA major events and awards!

October 26, 2015 - American Ranch Horse Association is proud to once again announce their partnership with Montana Silversmiths. Montana Silversmiths has been chosen to be the official Silversmith of the American Ranch Horse Association, which promotes the abilities of the All-Around versatile working horse through shows, clinics and sales.

Fit your life and style with extraordinary quality, classic styling, and American craftsmanship from Montana Silversmiths. Make Montana Silversmith Make Your Own! (<http://www.montanasilversmiths.com/>). You will see an incredible array of diverse products that are inspired by the west and built in the USA.

Your ARHA Membership is your ticket to getting the best deals on buckles, jewelry, and western home decor. Montana Silversmiths is trademarked as the Brand of Champions, crafting world class buckles for organizations and businesses, and is especially recognized in the western and outdoor industries. All ARHA members receive a discount when placing their orders, so watch for the coupon code when you renew your 2016 membership.

Montana Silversmiths is a proud partner and official silversmith of ARHA since 2014.

About Montana Silversmiths

Established in Columbus, Montana in 1973, Montana Silversmiths is a pioneer manufacturer and distributor in the western industry. Their skilled craftsmen are the finest in the western industry, perfecting a combination of traditional western designs and crisply executed engraving styles which include buckles, jewelry, and lifestyle products for the western enthusiasts. The company has a solid stable of trusted brands including Montana Lifestyles, Attitude Buckles, and of course the world renowned Montana Silversmiths buckles and jewelry.