

Becoming an Approved ARHA Judge

The following information on becoming an ARHA approved judge, as well as the forms you will need for application and references. If you have any questions about requirements on these forms, please call ARHA.

All applicants must have had previous equine experience. By applying for an American Ranch Horse Association Judges card, the applicant is indicating they are capable of judging every class in the ARHA rulebook. All judge applicants must attend the ARHA Judges seminar to become an approved ARHA judge. The seminars are designed to establish standards for judging the performance of the ARHA ranch horses and classes.

HOW TO APPLY

- Applicant's must be an ARHA member-in-good-standing to applying to become a judge.
- Applicant's must be 25 years of age as of January 1 of the application year in order to apply.
- There is a $185.00 application fee due by 12/21/2020. After 12/21/2020 the application fee is $225. Application fee is non-refundable and non-transferable. You must also complete the Judges Seminar Reservation Form and include it with your application. Mailed to the ARHA Office.
- All Approved judges must maintain current Judges membership in ARHA. If you show you will need a separate membership.
- New Judge applicants are required to submit a completed application and provide a minimum of four (4) references. Reference may be a judge (western/ranch type) that have witnessed you judge or references may be from show management personnel who have hired you to judge. Character references will be accepted if applicant has not judged.
- Urge your references to send in their reference letter as quickly as possible. All references must be received before your application can be submitted to the judges committee.
- Provide a recent photo, suitable for publication, of yourself in the attire you would wear to judge a horse show. (Photo will remain property of ARHA).
- Incomplete applications cannot be presented to the Judge's Committee for consideration and will be declared void, and require that the application process including repayment of application fee to start over.
- Periodically, a judge may receive letter requiring updated information and references.
- To be considered as an approved judge, all applications must be received by December 15th for January or July 15th for August seminars.

The $ 185.00 Application Fee includes seminar, liability insurance, and current year Judge's Membership dues.

JUDGES COMMITTEE CONSIDERATION

- Once the application has been received by ARHA, a judges file will be created and provided to the ARHA Judges Committee and Board of Directors at the Judge's Seminar for review.
- . In order to become an approved ARHA judge. Applicants are required to attend one of the seminar that will be held in January or August at the Center for Rural Development in Somerset, Kentucky. Applicant must pass rulebook testing and interview.
- Seminar may include, but are not limited to testing, rulebook testing, public speaking/reasons, personal interview and culture fit with ARHA evaluations. Applicant's should keep in mind that they are under continual review throughout the entire process.
- All applicants are to dress as if they were going to judge a ARHA approved show.
- Scores and application will be reviewed by Judges Committee and BOD at the Judges Seminar. At that time, the committee determines if an applicant is approved for judging based on the knowledge, testing, and interview of the judge.
- ARHA will send a letter within two weeks of the seminar to notify judges applicants of the decision.
- If you are approved for judging status, your name will be provided to those seeking names and addresses of ARHA approved judges.
- If your application is denied, you may resubmit an application one year from the date of application. A second application fee must be paid at that time.
