SHOW RULES

ADMISSION TO THE ARENA

No person will be permitted to enter the arena, except participants in the class, turnback or herd holders, judges, scribes, and show personnel. NO DOGS ARE TO BE IN THE WARM-UP AREA or ARENA..

ARENA GATE CALL

Barn calls are a courtesy and will be made for each class. Regardless of circumstances, it is the exhibitors ultimate responsibility to report to their class on time.

GATE RULE

All exhibitors are required to check in with gate steward one class prior, and once you have checked in you must stay in designated holding area. A one minute gate rule will be enforced. Once the final call for class has been given, the gate will be closed in one (1) minute. No late participants will be accepted and no refunds will be given for missed classes. It is the exhibitor's responsibility to be on the grounds and ready to show on the day of his/her scheduled classes without public notice.

TACK CHANGES

A maximum time period of three (3) minutes after class will be allowed for tack changes. All tack changes are to be made in makeup area. Once the gate is closed no contestant may enter the arena. Tack changes must be pre-scheduled with Gate Steward/Equipment Judge.

ELECTRONIC DEVICES

Any exhibitor using an electronic device in the show arena will be immediately disqualified. (Any exceptions must be made prior to the class with show management approval).

EXHIBITOR/BACK NUMBERS

Entry numbers will be assigned to each horse, not the exhibitor. This number is to be used for all classes in which the horse is entered. Entry numbers in all performance classes with the exception of showmanship and in-hand trail, must be displayed on both sides of the saddle pad or will result in disqualification. Any entry entering the arena without a number or with the incorrect number will be disqualified. Exhibitors must use the entry numbers assigned by ARHA World Championship Show (WCS). In the event of a lost back number, a $20 fee will be assessed for a replacement.

TIMEOUTS/EQUIPMENT FAILURE

There will be no time outs or reruns for equipment failure. If an equipment failure causes a delay or run to be discontinued, the entry will be disqualified.

CLASS CONFLICTS

In the event that a horse or exhibitor is entered in two classes in separate arenas that have a potential to be showing at the same time, notify the Equipment Judge at least one class prior to the conflict. The Equipment Judge will make an attempt to accommodate conflicts. Please keep the Equipment Judge advised if your situation changes.

HOLDING/WARM-UP PROCEDURE

Exhibitors must check in with the holding area. The Equipment Judge(s) will call exhibitors to enter the arena in their posted order of go. We ask that only exhibitors in the class that immediately follows the class in the arena be in the holding area. It is the exhibitors responsibility to report to their class on time.

EQUIPMENT JUDGES

Equipment Judges shall be responsible for attire and equipment rule interpretations. Final interpretations are the responsibility of show management. All bits, tack, appointments and attire shall be checked by equipment judge prior to entering the arena. Any equipment considered to be inhumane and/or illegal by the official equipment judge must be removed or entry into the arena will be denied. The equipment judge may disqualify an entry for presence of blood on the horse. The equipment judge(s) may serve as an official alternate judge at the discretion of show management.

OPEN ARENA/LONGING

Exhibitor may use any open arena time as scheduled and arenas will be open 30 minutes after the show ends each day. ABSOLUTELY NO longing will be allowed in either of the indoor arenas at any time. Horses may be longed in the outside arena only. Horses are not allowed to be turned loose at any time in any of the arenas.

HEALTH REQUIREMENTS

To comply with state animal health regulations, all horses will required a negative Coggins (Equine Infectious Anemia) dated within one year. All out of state horses must have a thirty (30) day health certificate and negative coggins papers. You must presented the required paper work at show office before the show packet can be picked up. If required paperwork is not available, the horse will not be allowed to compete and all entry fees will be forfeited. No exceptions.

COMMERCIAL EXHIBITS/VENDORS

If an individual wishes to sell, display, or advertises tack, clothing, jewelry, furniture or any miscellaneous merchandise or service, a signed vendor contact must be filed with ARHA. In addition, the merchandise must be sold in designated vendor areas only. No items may be displayed or sold out of barn or parking lots. Anyone found in violation of this rule will be issued a written warning on the first offense. The second offense and all subsequent offenses will yield a $300 fine each. All of the ARHA Logos are copyrighted and cannot be reproduced without permission from ARHA.

ATTIRE

All exhibitors are required to wear appropriate western attire as per the current ARHA Rule Book.

BREAKS

ARHA reserves the right to reschedule any published breaks as necessary. Additional break will be announced as deemed proper according to the progression of the show. Announcements made at show will take precedence over show bill. Lunch Breaks will be one hour and will be announced except where noted on show bill. ARHA reserves the right to make arena changes as needed to ensure classes and show runs efficiently and smoothly.

JUDGING PROCEDURE

Great care has been taken to select judges with broad experience and knowledge. The judges' decision in the show ring are their own responsibility. Horses will be judged under a Two-Judged System with double points given under each judge. (exception of ATRH, Sweepstakes or any other specified classes on show bill), with the official World Champion and Top Ten Placings being determined by World Show Point Tabulation (below). ARHA National points will be awarded to horses in each class under each judge's placing with the exception of grand & reserve in conformation classes. Class Results are considered final upon receipt of judge's cards, unless an error in tabulation has occurred. ARHA reserves the right to correct obvious error on judge's cards when detected without recourse from exhibitor and to substitute a judge or change schedule assignment during show.

DISQUALIFICATIONS

Abuse – Any horse that shows evidence of fresh blood in the mouth, nose chin, shoulders, barrel, flank or hip area will be considered to be abused and may be excused from the arena.

Dishonesty – Any exhibitor that has made or caused to be made any false statements in regard to any animal or article exhibited, or if any exhibitor shall attempt to interfere with judges in the performance of their duties, he or she shall be excluded from exhibiting.

General– In all individual work classes, simple majority opinion of judges shall prevail, such as off pattern and lameness.

Lameness– A horse will be excused from the arena if a simple majority of judges disqualify the entry due to lameness.

Loose Horse– Any horse that becomes separated from its handler or rider and cannot be caught by the original exhibitor or is beyond the exhibitors control may be disqualified and excused from the arena.

Horses that go off pattern or DQ'ed during a class will be whistled out and excused from the class.

CLASS TIE-BREAKER

In the case of a tie, ARHA Show Committee will randomly designate which judge will break the tie, and there after judges will be rotated to break ties. If there is still a tie for World Champion Title/Awards a coin flip will be used to break the tie. Judges and Show Committees decision is final.

WORLD SHOW TABULATIONS

Points will be tabulated on the following basis in classes that have more than one (1) entry for World Champion placings. The point system below will only be used to calculate world placings and do not reflect the ARHA points earned.

- 1st place=55 pts • 2nd place=45pts • 3rd place=36pts • 4th place=28pts •
- 5th place= 21pts • 6th place =15 pts • 7th place =10 pts • 8th place=6 pts
- 9th place=3pts • 10th place =1pts

PATTERNS

All patterns will be printed in a pattern book. Pattern Book will be available on the ARHA web site on the World Show page or may be purchased for $5.00 and will be included in your Exhibitors Packet. It is the exhibitor's responsibility to check the boards in the holding area before their class starts in case any changes and/or corrections to the pattern have occurred.

PROTESTS

All protests must be given to the show office in writing and signed by protester within 12 hours of the time of the cause of the protest and must accompanied with a $100 protest fee .

RESULTS POSTING

Results for each World Championship class will be posted at the Show Office. High point and class results will be published on-line following the conclusion of the World Show. After they are published on the ARHA web site, the results are deemed final.

AT-WILL CLASS AWARDS

Class placing of the Top Ten class winners will be awarded the following morning before the start of the show. Time and location will be announced.
