Horses are not allowed to be turned loose at any time in any of the arenas. There is a $50 fine for any horse caught longing in the indoor arena.

BREAKS

ARHA reserves the right to reschedule any published breaks as necessary. Additional break will be announced as deemed proper according to the progression of the show. Announcements made at show will take precedence over show bill. Lunch Breaks will be one hour and will be announced except where noted on show bill. ARHA reserves the right to make arena changes as needed to ensure classes and show runs efficiently and smoothly.

PROTESTS

All protests must be given to the show office in writing and signed by protester within 12 hours of the time of the cause of the protest and must be accompanied with a $100 protest fee.

ATTIRE

All exhibitors are required to wear appropriate western attire as per the current Rulebook.

JUDGING PROCEDURE

Great care has been taken to select judges with broad experience and knowledge. The judges' decision in the show ring are their own responsibility. Horses will be judged under a Two-Judged System with double points given under each judge. (exception of ATRH, Sweepstakes or any other specified classes on show bill), with the official World Champion and Top Ten Placings being determined by World Show Point Tabulation (below). ARHA National points will be awarded to horses in each class under each judge's placing with the exception of grand & reserve in conformation classes. Class Results are considered final upon receipt of judge's cards, unless an error in tabulation has occurred. ARHA reserves the right to correct obvious error on judge's cards when detected without recourse from exhibitor and to substitute a judge or change schedule assignment during show.

PATTERNS

All patterns will be printed in a pattern book. Pattern Book will be available on the ARHA web site on the World Show page or booklet may be purchased for $6.00 that will be included in your Exhibitors Packet. It is the exhibitor's responsibility to check the boards in the holding area before their class starts in case any changes and/or corrections to the pattern have occurred.

DISQUALIFICATIONS

Abuse – Any horse that shows evidence of fresh blood in the mouth, nose chin, shoulders, barrel, flank or hip area will be considered to be abused and may be excused from the arena.

Dishonesty – Any exhibitor that has made or caused to be made any false statements in regard to any animal or article exhibited, or if any exhibitor shall attempt to interfere with judges in the performance of their duties, he or she shall be excluded from exhibiting.

General– In all individual work classes, simple majority opinion of judges shall prevail, such as off pattern and lameness.

Lameness– A horse will be excused from the arena if a simple majority of judges disqualify the entry due to lameness. See ARHA Rule Book for complete rules regarding lameness, A judge's decision as to the lameness of a horse is final and is not subject to protest.

Blood Disqualification– In all classes and all divisions of classes, judges and/or equipment judges may disqualify horse(s) from the class if fresh blood is found on the mouth and/or body areas of a horse (including but not limited to the barrel, flanks, belly, sides, shoulders). Judges and/or equipment judges have sole authority to determine if the blood found on the horse warrants disqualification from the class and the judge's or judges' decision is final and not subject to protest.

Loose Horse– Any horse that becomes separated from its handler or rider and cannot be caught by the original exhibitor or is beyond the exhibitors control may be disqualified and excused from the arena.

Exhibitors are not allowed to wear earpieces or to have wireless contact with anyone during the course of a class.

Horses that go off pattern or DQ'ed during a class will be whistled out and excused from the class and will not be allowed to complete pattern.

CLASS TIE-BREAKER

In the case of a tie, ARHA Show Management will randomly designate which judge will break the tie, and there after judges will be rotated to break ties. If there is still a tie for World Champion Title/Awards a coin flip will be used to break the tie. Judges and Show Management decision is final.

TRAIL WARM-UPS

Arena C will be set-up for Trail Warm-ups on Wednesday, June 28th from 10:00AM – 6:00 PM. It will be open to anyone showing in a Ranch Trail class. You may practice as many times as you wish and the arena will be open to more than one rider at a time. A $20 Trail fee that will be charged to anyone that shows in a Ranch Trail class.

CLASS RESULTS POSTING

Class score sheets and Results for each World Championship class will be posted at the Show Office. No photo copies of score sheets will be made.

High point and class results will be published on the ARHA web site following the conclusion of the World Show.

WORKING ORDER

All individual work classes will have a working orders that will be decided on or drawn by show management. The work order will be posted in the holding area. All late entries will assume "late" draw position. Show management reserves the right to make changes as deemed necessary. If an exhibitor does not show up for their turn in working order, it will be considered a missed class and they will not be moved in the work order and will forfeit all entry fees.

If you or your horse are entered in back-to-back or concurrent classes and feel that this will cause a time constraint you must inform the show office by 6pm the day prior to the class and request change in order of go. Adjustments shall only be requested for direct horse or exhibitor conflicts. No adjustment will be made for trainer's convenience or non-show conflicts - order of go adjustment are made for direct horses and/or exhibitor conflict. If possible, show management will then adjust your working order. If you do not contact the show office prior to 6pm the day before the class in question, we may not be able to accommodate your request. Once working orders or cuts have been posted, changes will not be made unless approved by show management.

A family member is required to be an ARHA current member. This class requires pre-entry be made by May 19, 2023. No post entries will be accepted This class will not be judged and each participant will win a blue ribbon and specially designed buckle for this class. The Leadline class will not count towards any high point awards.

YOUTH WALK-TROT 10 & UNDER

All classes offered will be judged in the same manner as their regular Youth division counterparts (eliminating the lope).

Eligibility– Any ARHA member 10 and under is eligible for this division. Entries in this division may not enter any other class at the 2023 ARHA World Championship Show that requires a lope or any Leadline class not designated Walk/Trot but may compete in a Youth Conformation and/or Showmanship class.

Points– The Walk trot classes are ARHA non-point earning, but will be designated as World Champion, Reserve classes and Top 10 placings. These classes will be counted for Youth 10 & under Walk-Trot High Point Awards and will also be eligible to compete in the Youth Team Tournament.

Lil Buckaroo Flag Work- Will be offered for Youth 10 & Under that have NEVER competed in any cattle class.

The purpose of this class is to simulate working a cow as in a Ranch Boxing class, preferably at a walk or trot but rider will not be penalized for loping to maintain position. The rider will have 30 seconds and the class time starts when the flag moves. This class will be judged per Ranch Boxing class rules.

CONFORMATION CLASSES

All conformation classes/divisions will be offered in 2 & Under and 3 & Over. No Grand and Reserve Champion will be offered at the World Championship Show. ARHA points will be awarded per judge. The World Show Top Ten placings will use the World Show points tabulation.

"AT WILL" CLASSES

ALL Ranchmanship, Showmanship, Horsemanship, Ranch Reining, and Ranch Trail classes will be run "AT-WILL" in designated areas per show bill. There will be an on-line sign-up sheet for these classes and will run first come/first serve basis. You may show any time during the specified time that is on the show bill. It is the Exhibitors responsibility to show within the allotted time specified. You must be checked in with Gateman by the close of time of class to be considered enter or you will be unable to run. When entering the class, the exhibitors must give the judges/show officials the class number they are competing in and their designated exhibitor number before they enter the arena.

AT-WILL PLACING ANNOUNCEMENT & CLASS AWARDS

Class placing of the Top Ten class winners will be announced the following morning at 7:30am.

Ribbons and Awards may be picked up at the Awards Room next to the show office.

Awards Room will be open from 11:00 am - 5:00 pm.

SELECT DIVISION CLASSES

Select classes are offered for Amateur Exhibitors 50 years & older. Exhibitor must hold an ARHA Amateur Card. Select classes must enter the Amateur class and will run concurrently with the Amateur class except for Conformation and Ranch Riding. Concurrent cattle classes will pay only 1 cattle charge. Select Classes are not an ARHA approved division so you will not earn ARHA points. Select World Champion Buckles and other class awards will be presented. Amateur and Select division will not be combined for High Point Awards.  See Select High Point Awards.

WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP TITLES

All classes (except Leadline, Specialty/Sweepstakes and Top Ranch Hand classes) offered at the 2023 ARHA World Championship will place a World Champion, a Reserve Champion through 10th place.

ARHA points per placings will be awarded under each judge and a composite score using the World Show Tabulations will be used to determine the Overall Top 10 World Show placings.

WORLD SHOW TABULATIONS

A 2 judge system will be used at this show for all World Show Classes excluding any special classes, sweepstakes or the Top Ranch Hand. Points will be tabulated on the following basis in classes that have more than one (1) entry for World Champion placings. The points system below will only be used to calculate world placings per judge that are combined for a composite score for the World Show Top 10 placings. and do not reflect the ARHA points earned under each judge.

1st place = 55 points	6th place = 15 points
2nd place = 45 points	7th place = 10 points
3rd place = 36 points	8th place = 6 points
4th place = 28 points	9th place = 3 points
5th place = 21 points	10th place = 1 point

TABULATION ERROR

If a tabulation error is suspected, a written inquiry may be presented to the Show Office within one (1) hours after the completion of the affected class without the use of protest procedure, EXCEPT AT THE END OF THE SHOW WHEN ALL INQUIRIES MUST BE GIVEN BEFORE THE HIGH POINT AWARDS ARE PRESENTED. ARHA reserves the right to correct such errors without recourse from entrants.

CLASS TIE BREAKER

Before the start of the show each judge will be designated as the tiebreaker for the even and the odd number classes on the showbill. In the event of a tie for World Show placings, the entry with the highest placing or score on the tiebreaker judge's card is placed highest in the class but this does not reflect the ARHA points earned.

CLASS AWARDS

Please check all awards before leaving the arena. ARHA will not replace awards after they leave the presentation area for that class. In each class the World Champion will receive custom buckle and Vest, and Reserve Champions-5th place will receive awards. Ribbons are awarded to the Top 10 horses

WORLD SHOW PAYBACK

The Payback scale will be used for all classes that have added money and/or jackpots. Payback monies will be paid to the overall composite score of the Top 10 class winners and classes that have finals.
