Amendments to such may be made at any time by the American Ranch Horse Association in the form of written notice.
2. Indemnification. The Vendor assumes sole responsibility and hereby agrees to protect, indemnify, defend and hold harmless the American Ranch Horse Association, World Equestrian Center, and its employees and agents from any and all claims, including claims or causes of action arising from the sole negligence of said indemnities, arising out of, or in connection with Vendor's occupancy and use of the Show premises, or any action or inaction of any nature in connection with or related to the Show, including but not limited to loss, theft, damage, destruction, or delay in delivery of goods, display material and other effects; any injury to Vendor, Vendor's employees, agents, representatives or guests while on the Show premises; and any damage to Vendor's business by reason of failure to provide space for the exhibit or removal of exhibit or failure to hold the Show as scheduled. Vendor acknowledges that the American Ranch Horse Association and C Bar C Expo Center do not maintain insurance covering Vendor's property and that Vendor has the sole responsibility to obtain business interruption and property damage and theft insurance covering such losses by Vendor. Vendor agrees to indemnify and hold forever harmless the American Ranch Horse Association and World Equestrian Center from any and all damages, loss, liability, claim or expenses (including legal fees) based upon, arising out of, or in connection with the violations of any law or ordinance by the Vendor, its employees, agents, representatives, guests or other holding under the Vendor; or if failure by Vendor or any such persons to comply with all applicable terms and conditions contained in these rules or in the agreement between World Equestrian Center and the American Ranch Horse Association regarding the Show premises or a part thereof.
